Description of Professional Designations

Chartered Retirement Planning Specialist CRPS (2014)

The College for Financial Planning® is a financial education provider, located in Greenwood, CO, that awards the Chartered Retirement Planning Specialist and CRPS designation. It requires applicants to successfully complete the Chartered Retirement Planning Counselor program, pass a final examination, and comply with a Code of Ethics. Applicants must agree to abide by the Standards of Professional Conduct. Applicants must also disclose any criminal, civil, self-regulatory organization, or governmental agency inquiry, investigation, or proceeding relating to their professional or business conduct. Successful candidates receive a certificate and may use the designation on correspondence and business cards for a two-year period. Continued use of the CRPC® designation is subject to ongoing renewal requirements. To continue using the CRPC® designation, every two years, the individual must complete 16 hours of continuing education, reaffirming to abide by the Standards of Professional Conduct, Terms and Conditions, and self disclose any criminal, civil, self-regulatory organization, or governmental agency inquiry, investigation, or proceeding relating to their professional or business conduct, and paying a biennial renewal fee of $95.

Accredited Investment Fiduciary® (AIF®) (2019)

The AIF Designation certifies that the recipient has specialized knowledge of fiduciary standards of care and their application to the investment management process. To receive the AIF Designation, the individual must meet prerequisite criteria based on a combination of education, relevant industry experience, and/or ongoing professional development, complete a training program, successfully pass a comprehensive, closed-book final examination under the supervision of a proctor and agree to abide by the Code of Ethics and Conduct Standards. In order to maintain the AIF Designation, the individual must annually attest to the Code of Ethics and Conduct Standards and accrue and report a minimum of six hours of continuing education. The Designation is administered by the Center for Fiduciary Studies, the standards-setting body of fi360.
